MEMORANDUM FOR: IADs

25X1A5a1

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

Your attention is invited to the ideas set forth in para. 2 of the attached memorandum. If you feel that you would have a possible interest in having any of [REDACTED] in your office on a tour and that you have one or more present employees who would benefit from a one or two year tour at academic institutions, would you please let us know by the 12th of May so that we can explore the matter in more detail. Should you have any interest we can then turn to the Personnel Office which has on file biographic information on [REDACTED]. The information, I gather, is fairly complete and is machine indexed as follows:

1. alphabetically,
2. by area specialty,
3. by country in which the person has served,
4. by language proficiency, and
5. by college major.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Intelligence)
Deputy Director (Plans)

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

25X1A5a1 25X1A5a1 25X1A5a1
1. As a result of the presentation made on 16 April 1958 by the [REDACTED] we have again reviewed our working relationship with [REDACTED] and have come to the conclusion that the group [REDACTED] are in the main beyond our reach for the purpose of normal recruitment but that some of them should be drawn into the work of the Agency by other means. There are two ways of doing this. The first would be to select from the group [REDACTED] those who would qualify for our specialist reserve. We are asking [REDACTED] Office of Personnel, who is responsible for this program, to survey the list with this in mind, and to review likely cases with representatives of DD/I and DD/P. 25X1A9a

2. The second way in which we can use [REDACTED] would be to arrange for them to come and work in the Agency for a period of one or two years on an exchange basis. A great many of [REDACTED] teach, and it is perfectly conceivable that we could provide replacements for them while they are here. This arrangement would be mutually beneficial. [REDACTED] have lived and worked overseas; some have dealt with problems of basic interest to the intelligence community; and they are equipped by training to do analytic work. A tour with the Agency would increase their understanding of the national defense implications of their academic pursuits and would provide them with background information of enduring value. On the other hand, the opportunity that this exchange would provide to some of our own people to engage in teaching, be in touch with the academic community more broadly than is possible here in Washington, and to establish or reburish their personal reputations outside of the Agency, would undoubtedly be welcome. 25X1A5a1

3. As a result of an arrangement made last year [REDACTED] we have on file all of the essential data needed to commence with either of these programs, with the exception of security data. If you are interested in pursuing this matter further, I should be most happy to review the materials we have with you or with anyone whom you designate for this purpose.
